Sara Hayat is a senior graphic designer and textile artist based in Melbourne, Australia. With a breadth of experience spanning textile design, branding, publication, packaging, advertising, illustration, copy writing and strategy, she is coming to SAM to talk all things contemporary design.

Over two sessions teachers will gain valuable insights into contemporary Australian design practice and participate in two design based workshops that can be easily adapted for classroom use. Session 1 will focus on graphic design and session 2 will look at textile design.
