

Shepparton Art Museum Foundation Board

Gavin Cator (temporary board member)

CEO, Greater Shepparton City Council

Gavin has spent his entire working life in local government. Prior to commencing with Greater Shepparton City Council in January 2012, Gavin was the Chief Executive Officer at the City of Wodonga, the Shire of Moira in Victoria as well as General Manager of Berrigan Shire in NSW.

Gavin holds a Bachelor of Civil Engineering and a Graduate Diploma in Municipal Engineering.

He has also served in sector leadership roles including president of Local Government Professionals in Victoria and as a national director of Local Government Managers Australia. Gavin is also a graduate of the Australian Rural Leadership Program and has a passion for leadership development.

He has been heavily involved in Australian Rules Football, and has previously held the positions of AFL appointed commissioner of the Goulburn Murray Regional Commission, a director of the Ovens and Murray Football League, President of the Murray Football League and President of two football Clubs. He is also a keen golfer.

Mr Stephen Copulos

Managing Director, Copulos Group

Stephen Copulos has 30 years' experience in a wide range of business enterprises. Stephen's experience has been obtained in industries such as property development and investment, retail, fast food, hospitality, manufacturing and mining. Stephen is Managing Director of the Copulos Group of private companies and has director experience in Australia, the UK, Europe and USA.

Stephen as Managing Director of the Copulos Group's since 1997 has for many years led several major projects and business ventures and he is responsible for all aspects of their day to day operations and strategic directions.

In Shepparton, Stephen's current business interests include the Parklake Hotel, MC Pipes (concrete pipe manufacture) and Riverside Plaza shopping centre.

Stephen also has over 15 years' experience as a public company Director of eight public companies.

Current public company roles include,

- Chairman of Crusader Resources Limited - mining company with operating mines in Brazil and head office based in Perth (Copulos Group is the major shareholder). The company is listed in Australia and has developed and operates an Iron Ore Mine in Brazil and a 2.3m oz. gold project also in Brazil.
- Non-Executive Director of Collins Foods Limited - with over 200 KFC and Sizzler restaurants across Australia and Asia and its head office based in Brisbane (Copulos group is the second largest shareholder). The company operates 170 KFC restaurants under franchise and 27 Sizzler restaurants in Australia. It owns the Sizzler brand in the southern hemisphere and also has 64 franchised Sizzler restaurants in Asia including Thailand, China and Japan.

Dr Jody Evans

Associate Professor (Marketing)
Melbourne Business School

Dr Jody Evans is Associate Professor in Marketing at Melbourne Business School, The University of Melbourne. Jody completed a PhD in the area of International Marketing at Monash University. She also has an Arts degree in English Literature and Psychology and a Marketing (Honours) degree from Monash University. Jody's professional expertise and research interests include international marketing, branding, retailing, not-for-profits, museums, galleries and performing arts. Jody is a board member of the Public Galleries Association of Victoria.

Jody's work has been published in a range of journals including the Journal of International Business Studies, Journal of International Marketing, European Journal of Marketing, Journal of Marketing Management and International Marketing Review. Jody has extensive experience as a consultant and as an executive educator for organisations in the retail and arts sectors. She leads market research, strategic reviews and management development seminars and workshops. Clients include B&Q, Sainsburys, Tesco, BP Australia, Museum Victoria, National Gallery of Victoria, Public Galleries Association of Victoria, The Duldig Studio, TarraWarra Museum of Art and Koorie Heritage Trust. Current projects examine a range of issues including: best-practice models of economic and social impact in the visual arts; the role of arts and culture in regenerating city brand image; cultural diplomacy in the context of international exhibition relationships; a strategic stakeholder review of the Koorie Heritage Trust; and the shared value of Australia Post's community partnerships.

George Gabriel

Director, Morphic Asset Management

George Gabriel has 20 years of financial markets experience across mergers & acquisitions, private equity and equities research. He has worked with global investment banks (Credit Suisse First Boston and Deutsche Bank), Australian commercial banks (ANZ Bank) and Australian wealth management firms (BBY and Evans & Partners).

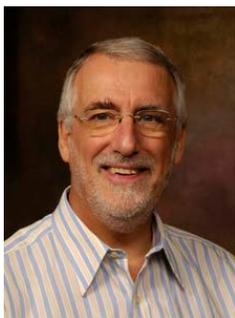

He has extensive experience investing across all asset classes - including listed and unlisted equity, fixed income, listed property and property development. His experience includes providing merger & acquisition advice to institutions at Board and C-suite level; providing listed equities investment advice to institutional funds managers, family offices and high net worth individuals; and direct private equity investment experience.

George's qualifications include:

Columbia University, Value Investing Program
Chartered Financial Analyst Charterholder
Fellow of FINSIA, Graduate Diploma in Applied Finance and Investment
Graduate of Australian Institute of Company Directors
Columbia University, Value Investing Program
Chartered Financial Analyst Charterholder
Fellow of FINSIA, Graduate Diploma in Applied Finance and Investment
Graduate of Australian Institute of Company Directors
Bachelor of Commerce in Accounting with Merit, University of New South Wales
Bachelor of Laws (Commercial Law and Taxation majors), University of New South Wales
Bachelor of Laws, University of California, San Diego
Affiliate of Real Estate Institute of Victoria (REIV)

Mr Carrillo Gantner AO

Chair, Sidney Myer Fund

Carrillo Gantner is the President of the Melbourne Festival and Chairman of the Sidney Myer Fund. His many achievements include being the first drama officer at the Australian Council for the Arts (1970-1973), general manager of the Melbourne Theatre Company, and being the founding director, executive director and artistic director of the Malthouse Theatre (originally the Playbox Theatre Company).

Carrillo has also been counsellor (cultural) at the Australian Embassy in Beijing, chairman of the Performing Arts Board and a member of the Australia Council. He has been chairman of Asialink and the Melbourne International Comedy Festival and president of the Victorian Arts Centre Trust.

Carrillo was awarded an officer of the Order of Australia in 2001 for services to the performing arts and Australia's cultural exchange with Asia. In 2007, he was awarded Victorian of the Year. In March 2011, Carrillo was awarded a Green Room Lifetime Achievement Award for his services to the performing arts.

Mr Drew Pettifer

Artist and Lecturer, Monash University

Drew Pettifer is an academic, artist, curator, director and lawyer. Born in Shepparton, Pettifer attended public schools in the region before relocating to Melbourne to pursue further studies. He holds a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Arts (Honours First Class) from The University of Melbourne, a Master of Arts (Arts Management) from RMIT University and a postgraduate qualification from the Victorian College of the Arts in Visual Art. Pettifer currently lectures in Art History and Theory in the School of Art at RMIT University and guest lectures in the Art, Design and Architecture Faculty at Monash University. Pettifer is also a doctoral candidate within the Art, Design and Architecture Faculty at Monash University and is due to complete his PhD in December 2014. In addition to lecturing in fine art, Pettifer is an established artist with work in various collections including the Shepparton Art Museum, the Acacia Collection and the National Gallery of Victoria (NGV), among others. He exhibits his work regularly across Australia and internationally. Pettifer currently holds the position of Deputy Chairperson of the board of Bus Projects Inc, a leading not-for-profit art space in Collingwood. He is also a member of the Shepparton Art Museum Advisory Panel (2010-2014) and the City of Melbourne Arts Grants Assessment Panel.

In addition to his work within the arts, Pettifer also has a strong background in law and business. He worked for a short time as a solicitor in Echuca, practicing across commercial, property and employment law in both Victorian and New South Wales jurisdictions, before returning to Melbourne to take over as Managing Director of Meyers Place Pty Ltd, a company which owns and runs Meyers Place Bar, Melbourne's iconic first laneway bar, and continues to hold this position.

Mr Peter Quinn (Chair)

Managing Director, Goulburn Valley Water

Peter joined Goulburn Valley Water in 1996 and was appointed to the role of Managing Director in 2008. He has extensive experience in strategic planning, regional infrastructure development, organisational capacity building, risk management and governance. He holds an Executive MBA from the Australian Graduate School of Management, and has undertaken a Churchill Fellowship project on water resource management.

Peter is a member of the Australian Property Institute, the Australian Institute of Company Directors, the Institute of Water Administration, and sits on the Board of the Smart Water Fund, Goulburn Ovens Institute of TAFE, and WaterAid Australia.